REVISED EDITION

AUTHORIZED FOR USE IN THE CONGREGATIONS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
OF ENGLAND BY THE SYNOD OF 1907.

PREFACE.

THE previous edition of 'Church Praise' was authorized for use in the Presbyterian Church of England in 1882, and at the time was generally acknowledged to be one of the best hymn-books of its class. After the lapse of over twenty years a desire arose for its revision, and the Synod of 1903 appointed a Committee, under the Convenership of the Rev. W. Rigby Murray, who had presided over the production of the book, to consider the best method of adapting it to present-day needs. The recommendations of that Committee were approved by the Church, and have been constantly borne in mind by the Committee which, since the year 1905, has been at work in the preparation of this book. For much of the preliminary work the Rev. R. E. Welsh, D.D., now in Canada, was responsible, as Secretary and then as Convener of Committee. Suggestions and criticisms sent in from many quarters of the Church have also been of much service. The result has been a considerable addition to the bulk of the volume, with a very thorough revision and rearrangement of its contents.

The author's name, wherever known, is placed at the foot of every hymn. Care has been taken to verify the text and as far as possible to give the original. Where deviation from the original has been found advisable, this is indicated by the use of alt. after the name; and sel. is used in the numerous cases in which the original is too long for congregational use or where unsuitable verses have been omitted.

A selection of Prose Psalms and congregational Anthems has been included; but it was found impossible to give either a complete Prose Psalter or a very large and varied selection of Anthems without making the book too costly, and too bulky for convenient handling. It is believed that the selection of Scripture Sentences, with other new features introduced in Section XVI., will be welcomed by an increasing number of congregations. No subject-index has been given, but cross-references to suitable hymns will be found at the end of each section. Consecutive numbering has been adopted throughout the book in order to facilitate reference.

The Drafting Committee has had the invaluable help of two competent musical editors,—Dr. F. N. Abernethy (Mus.D. Oxon.), of St. John's, Forest Hill, and Dr. J. E. Borland (Mus.D. Oxon.), of St. Botolph's, Bishopsgate, formerly of Park Church, Highbury—to whose skill and thoroughness they are greatly indebted. On their advice the Committee has adopted for the Chant Sections in the musical editions the system of pointing by musical notes as used in the 'St. Mary Abbott's Psalter' and the 'Cathedral Paragraph Psalter.' In certain preliminary matters and in other ways the Committee has also had assistance from Mr. F. G. Edwards, formerly of St. John's Wood.

The list of acknowledgments will be found in the following pages. Special thanks are due to the Proprietors of 'Hymns Ancient and Modern' for permission to use many of their tunes for a nominal fee, and for free permission to use again those which had appeared in the former edition. Every effort has been made to trace owners of copyright words and music, but in some cases the effort has failed. The Committee asks pardon for any oversight, which will gladly be rectified in a future edition. The General Editor desires to acknowledge the kind help of many friends in tracing ownership.

PREFACE

The Committee hopes that this revision will increase the value, as an aid to congregational worship, of a book which has long been used and loved by our Church; it cannot end its work better than with the words which closed the Preface to the first edition:—

‘Praise ye the Lord: both young men and maidens; old men and children.’

In the name of the Committee,

J. OSWALD DYKES,

Convener,

J. M. E. ROSS,

General Editor.

NOTE BY MUSICAL EDITORS.

The musical editors desire to acknowledge their obligation to the exhaustive researches of Messrs. W. Cowan, F. G. Edwards, J. R. Griffiths, J. T. Lightwood, and J. Love into the sources of tunes. Of these they have fully availed themselves. Their thanks are also cordially given to Messrs. W. E. Bartlett, C. F. Carter, E. P. Goodman, and W. Jeater for help in correcting the music proofs. They likewise desire to express their gratification at being connected with a work the first edition of which has been so honourably identified with the name of Dr. E. J. Hopkins. The musical editors have marked some hymns for unison or antiphonal singing: these markings are to be regarded as suggestions only.

NOTES ON THE POINTING OF WORDS FOR CHANTING.

1. The small notes placed over the syllables which precede the first bar-line are of the aggregate value of one Semibreve, and are to be sung in approximately strict time. The first note takes the place of the accent, or heavy syllable, used in some books; the other notes are intended to guard against the hurrying of the syllables between that accent and the bar-line. When three minims, or three crotchets preceded by a minim, stand together, they are to be sung smoothly as a triplet. It has not been thought necessary to encumber the text with the figure 3 in such cases.

2. No pauses are to be made at commas. When the ‘Recitation’ is long enough to require it, or when special emphasis is called for, an asterisk (*) is used to indicate the break.

The copyright of the tune ‘Irene’ (436) has been acquired for the Presbyterian Church of England from the Executors of the late Rev. C. C. Scholefield.

Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God, the Almighty, Which was and Which is and Which is to come.

p c HOLY, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty!

Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee;

p c Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty,

f God in Three Persons, blessed Trinity!

p c 2 Holy, holy, holy! all the saints adore Thee,

Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea,

Cherubim and seraphim falling down before Thee,

Which wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.

p 3 Holy, holy, holy! though the darkness hide Thee,

Though the eye of sinful man Thy glory may not see,

mf Only Thou art holy; there is none beside Thee,

Perfect in power, in love, and purity.

p c 4 Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty!

ff All Thy works shall praise Thy name in earth and sky and sea;

p c Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty,

f God in Three Persons, blessed Trinity! AMEN.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits.

mf PRAISE ye Jehovah, praise the Lord most holy,
Who cheers the contrite, girds with strength the weak ;
Praise Him Who will with glory crown the lowly,
And with salvation beautify the meek.

2 Praise ye Jehovah for His lovingkindness,
And all the tender mercy He hath shown ;

p Praise Him Who pardons all our sin and blindness,
c And calls us sons, and takes us for His own.

mf 3 Praise ye Jehovah, Source of all our blessing ;
Before His gifts earth's richest boons are dim ;
Resting in Him, His peace and joy possessing,
All things are ours, for we have all in Him.

f 4 Praise ye the Father, God the Lord, Who gave us,
With full and perfect love, His only Son ;
Praise ye the Son, Who died Himself to save us ;
Praise ye the Spirit: praise the Three in One. AMEN.

Sing unto Him, sing praises unto Him : talk ye of all His marvellous works.

- mf* GIVE to our God immortal praise ;
c Mercy and truth are all His ways :
c Wonders of grace to God belong ;
Repeat His mercies in your song.
- mf* 2 Give to the Lord of lords renown ;
The King of kings with glory crown :
c His mercies ever shall endure
When lords and kings are known no more.
- mf* 3 He built the earth, He spread the sky,
And fixed the starry lights on high :
c Wonders of grace to God belong ;
Repeat His mercies in your song.
- mf* 4 He fills the sun with morning light,
He bids the moon direct the night :
c His mercies ever shall endure
When sun and moon shall shine no more.
- p* 5 He sent His Son with power to save
From guilt and darkness and the grave :
c Wonders of grace to God belong ;
Repeat His mercies in your song.

Lord, Thou hast been our dwelling-place in all generations.

mf O GOD, the Rock of Ages,
Who evermore hast been,
What time the tempest rages,
Our dwelling-place serene,—
Before Thy first creations,
O Lord, the same as now,
To endless generations
The Everlasting Thou!

p 2 Our years are like the shadows

That blossom but to die,—
A sleep, a dream, a story
By strangers quickly told,
An unremaining glory
Of things that soon are old.

mf 3 O Thou Who canst not slumber,
Whose light grows never pale,
Teach us aright to number
Our years before they fail.
On us Thy mercy lighten,
On us Thy goodness rest,
And let Thy Spirit brighten
The hearts Thyself hast blessed.

4 Lord, crown our faith's endeavour
With beauty and with grace,
Till, clothed in light for ever,
We see Thee face to face,—
A joy no language measures,
A fountain brimming o'er,
An endless flow of pleasures,
An ocean without shore. AMEN.

Old Hebrew Melody (?).

*The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob This is My Name for ever,
and this is My Memorial unto all generations.*

mf THE God of Abraham praise,
Who reigns enthroned above,
Ancient of everlasting days,
And God of love.
Jehovah! Great I AM,
By earth and heaven confessed!
p I bow and bless the sacred Name
For ever blest.

mf 2 The God of Abraham praise,
At Whose supreme command
From earth I rise, and seek the joys
At His right hand.
I all on earth forsake,
Its wisdom, fame, and power,
And Him my only portion make,
My shield and tower.

3 He by Himself hath sworn;
I on His oath depend:
I shall, on eagles' wings upborne,
To heaven ascend;
I shall behold His face,
I shall His power adore,
And sing the wonders of His grace
For evermore.

4 There dwells the Lord our King,
The Lord our Righteousness;
Triumphant o'er the world and sin,
The Prince of Peace
On Zion's sacred height
His kingdom still maintains,
And glorious with His saints in light
For ever reigns.

f 5 The God Who reigns on high
The great archangels sing,
p c And 'Holy, holy, holy,' cry,
 'Almighty King!
 Who was and is the same,
 And evermore shall be,
f Jehovah! Father! Great I AM!
 We worship Thee.'

ff 6 The whole triumphant host
Give thanks to God on high;
'Hail, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!'
 They ever cry.
Hail, Abraham's God, and mine!
I join the heavenly lays;
All might and majesty are Thine,
And endless praise. AMEN.

I will sing unto the Lord, for He hath triumphed gloriously.

Gloria in excelsis.

J. W. ELLIOTT.

The first system of the musical score is written for piano. It consists of a treble and a bass staff joined by a brace. The key signature is three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and the time signature is 4/4. The melody in the treble staff begins with a quarter note G4, followed by eighth notes A4, B4, and C5, then a dotted quarter note B4, and continues with eighth notes A4, G4, F#4, E4, D4, C4, B3, and A3. The piano accompaniment in the bass staff starts with a forte 'f' dynamic, featuring chords of G4-B4-D5 and F#4-A4-C5, followed by a series of chords and single notes in the lower register, including G3, F#3, E3, and D3. The system concludes with a 'rall.' (rallentando) marking over the final notes.

Thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee.

mf WHEN all Thy mercies, O my God,
My rising soul surveys,
Transported with the view, I'm lost
In wonder, love, and praise.

2 Unnumbered comforts to my soul
Thy tender care bestowed,

From Whom those comforts flowed.

p 3 When worn with sickness, oft hast Thou
With health renewed my face,
And, when in sins and sorrows sunk,
c Revived my soul with grace.

mf 4 Ten thousand thousand precious gifts
My daily thanks employ;
Nor is the least a cheerful heart,
That tastes those gifts with joy.

Thy mercy shall adore.

Sent by the Father from on high,
Our life to live, our death to die.

Behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, Which is Christ the Lord.

f CHRISTIANS, awake ! salute the happy morn
Whereon the Saviour of mankind was born ;
Rise to adore the mystery of love,
Which hosts of angels chanted from above ;
With them the joyful tidings first begun
Of God Incarnate and the Virgin's Son.

2 Then to the watchful shepherds it was told,
Who heard the angelic herald's voice,—‘ Behold,
I bring good tidings of a Saviour's birth
To you and all the nations upon earth ;
This day hath God fulfilled His promised word,
This day is born a Saviour, Christ the Lord.’

3 He spake ; and straightway the celestial choir
In hymns of joy, unknown before, conspire ;
The praises of redeeming love they sang,
And heaven's whole orb with hallelujahs rang ;
God's highest glory was their anthem still,

d Peace upon earth, and unto men good will.

mf 4 O may we keep and ponder in our mind
God's wondrous love in saving lost mankind ;
p Trace we the Babe, Who hath retrieved our loss,
From His poor manger to His bitter cross,
c Tread in His steps, assisted by His grace,
Till man's first heavenly state again takes place.

f 5 Then may we hope, the angelic hosts among,
To sing, redeemed, a glad triumphal song ;
He That was born upon this joyful day
c Around us all His glory shall display ;
Saved by His love, incessant we shall sing
Eternal praise to heaven's Almighty King. AMEN.

Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, He also Himself likewise took part of the same.

mp O MEAN may seem this house of clay,
Yet 'twas the Lord's abode;

These tears the Lord did weep.

Such glory strange is given.

mf 4 But not this robe of flesh alone
Shall link us, Lord, to Thee;
Not only in the tear and groan
Shall the dear kindred be:

5 We shall be reckoned for Thine own
Because Thy heaven we share,
Because we sing around Thy throne,
And Thy bright raiment wear.

6 Thou Who wast clothèd in our clay,
And stricken in our stead,
c Wilt put on us Thy bright array,
Thy joy on us wilt shed.

To make our earth divine;
O mighty grace, Thy heaven to give,
And lift our life to Thine. AMEN.

O Jesu Christ, mein Lebens Licht.

If any man would come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me.

mf 'TAKE up thy cross,' the Saviour said,
'If thou wouldst My disciple be;
Take up thy cross with willing heart,
And humbly follow after Me.'

2 Take up thy cross; let not its weight
Fill thy weak soul with vain alarm;

c His strength shall bear thy spirit up,
And brace thy heart, and nerve thine arm.

mf 3 Take up thy cross, nor heed the shame,
Nor let thy foolish pride rebel;

p Thy Lord for thee the cross endured,
To save thy soul from death and hell.

mf 4 Take up thy cross, then, in His strength,
And calmly every danger brave;
'T will guide thee to a better home,
And lead to victory o'er the grave.

5 Take up thy cross, and follow Christ,
Nor think till death to lay it down;
For only he who bears the cross

f May hope to wear the glorious crown. AMEN.

Tochter Sion, 1741.
(Arr. by J. RICHARDSON?)Who, when He was reviled, reviled not again; when He suffered, He threatened not.

mf WHAT grace, O Lord, and beauty shone Around Thy steps below!
 What patient love was seen in all Thy life and death of woe!

p 2 For ever on Thy burdened heart
 A weight of sorrow hung;
 Yet no ungentle, murmuring word
 Escaped Thy silent tongue.

3 Thy foes might hate, despise, revile,
 Thy friends unfaithful prove;

c Unwearied in forgiveness still,
 Thy heart could only love.

mf 4 O give us hearts to love like Thee,
 Like Thee, O Lord, to grieve
 Far more for others' sins than all
 The wrongs that we receive.

5 One with Thyself, may every eye
 In us, Thy brethren, see
 That gentleness and grace which spring
 From union, Lord, with Thee. AMEN.

Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here.

mf LORD, it is good for us to be High on the mountain here with Thee,
 Where stand revealed to mortal gaze
 The great old saints of other days,
 Who once received, on Horeb's height,
 The eternal laws of truth and right,
p Or caught the still small whisper, higher Than storm, than earthquake, or than fire.

mf 2 Lord, it is good for us to be
 With Thee and with Thy faithful three :
 Here, where the apostle's heart of rock
 Is nerved against temptation's shock ;
 Here, where the son of thunder learns
 The thought that breathes, the word that burns ;
 Here, where on eagles' wings we move
 With him whose last, best creed is love.

mp 3 Lord, it is good for us to be Entranced, enrapt, alone with Thee ;
 Watching the glistening raiment glow,
 Whiter than Hermon's whitest snow
 The human lineaments that shine
 Irradiant with a light divine ;
c Till we too change from grace to grace,
 Gazing on that transfigured face.

mf 4 Lord, it is good for us to be Here on the holy mount with Thee,
 When darkling in the depths of night,
 When dazzled with excess of light,
 We bow before the heavenly voice
 That bids bewildered souls rejoice,
 Though love wax cold and faith be dim,
f 'This is My Son ! O hear ye Him !' AMEN.

Blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

mp WE saw Thee not when Thou didst come

To this poor world of sin and death,
Nor e'er beheld Thy cottage home
In that despised Nazareth :

mf But we believe Thy footsteps trod
Its streets and plains, Thou Son of God.

p 2 We did not see Thee lifted high Amid that wild and savage crew,
Nor heard Thy meek, imploring cry,
'Forgive, they know not what they do':

mp Yet we believe the deed was done
Which shook the earth, and veiled the sun.

3 We stood not by the empty tomb
Where late Thy sacred body lay,
Nor sat within that upper room,
Nor met Thee in the open way :

mf But we believe that angels said,
'Why seek the living with the dead?'

4 We did not mark the chosen few,
When Thou didst through the clouds ascend,
First lift to heaven their wondering view,

Then to the earth all prostrate bend :
Yet we believe that mortal eyes
Beheld that journey to the skies.

5 And now that Thou dost reign on high,
And thence Thy waiting people bless,
No ray of glory from the sky
Doth shine upon our wilderness :

f But we believe Thy faithful word,
And trust in our redeeming Lord. AMEN.

It was the good pleasure of the Father . . . through Him to reconcile all things unto Himself, having made peace through the blood of His cross.

f IN the cross of Christ I glory,

mf 3 When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,
From the cross the radiance streaming
Adds more lustre to the day.

Peace is there that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

The sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst. And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, He said, Father, into Thy hands I commend My spirit.

p O DARK and dreary day,
When Jesus died to pay
Sin's awful penalty !
The sun kept back its light,
To hide that mournful sight,
When Jesus died for me.

pp 2 O who can tell those pangs
As on that cross He hangs,
My dearest Lord, for me ?
mp For me He dies that death,
For me He yields His breath,
My sinful soul to free.

3 And, as He bows His head,
Have I no tears to shed,
When I look back and see
c Those loving arms spread wide
To draw me to His side,
My ransom thus to be ?

Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, . . . My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me ?

p THRONED upon the awful tree,
King of grief, I watch with Thee ;
Darkness veils Thine anguished face ;
None its lines of woe can trace ;
None can tell what pangs unknown
Hold Thee silent and alone, —

pp 2 Silent through those three dread hours,
Wrestling with the evil powers,
Gloom around Thee and within,
Till the appointed time is nigh,
Till the Lamb of God may die.

p 3 Hark that cry that peals aloud
Upward through the whelming cloud !
Thou, the Father's only Son,
Thou, His own Anointed One,
Thou dost ask Him—can it be ?—
' Why hast Thou forsaken Me ?'

4 Lord, should fear and anguish roll
Darkly o'er my sinful soul,
Thou, Who once wast thus bereft
That Thine own might ne'er be left,
Teach me, by that bitter cry,
In the gloom to know Thee nigh.

[May be sung to 'St. Bees,' No. 104.]

I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord.

mf NEVER further than Thy cross ;
 Never higher than Thy feet ;
 Here earth's precious things seem dross ;
 Here earth's bitter things grow sweet.

p 2 Gazing thus, our sin we see,
 Learn Thy love while gazing thus,—
 Sin, which laid the cross on Thee,
 Love, which bore the cross for us.

mf 3 Here we learn to serve and give,
 And, obedient, self deny ;
 Here we gather love to live ;
 Here we gather faith to die.

4 Symbols of our liberty
 And our service here unite ;
 Captives by Thy cross set free,
 Soldiers of Thy cross we fight.

5 Pressing onward as we can,
 Still to this our hearts shall tend,—
 Where our earliest hopes began,
 There our last aspirings end ;

The first system of the musical score is in 4/2 time. The treble staff begins with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and contains a series of chords and single notes. The bass staff features a steady accompaniment of eighth notes. The lyrics 'Hal - le - lu - jah!' are written below the treble staff.

Hal - le - lu - jah!

The second system continues the melody. The treble staff shows a change in the harmonic structure, with some notes marked with a sharp sign. The bass staff continues with its accompaniment. The lyrics 'Hal - le - lu - jah!' are repeated.

Hal - le - lu - jah!

The third system shows further development of the musical theme. The treble staff includes a key signature change to two sharps (F# and C#). The bass staff maintains the rhythmic pattern. The lyrics 'Hal - le - lu - jah!' are repeated.

Hal - le - lu - jah! A - men.

The fourth and final system concludes the piece. The treble staff ends with a final chord. The bass staff concludes with a double bar line. The lyrics 'Hal - le - lu - jah! A - men.' are written below the treble staff.

- mf* THOU Who didst stoop below
To drain the cup of woe,
 Wearing the form of frail mortality,
c Thy blessed labours done,
 Thy crown of victory won,

 home on high.
- mp* 2 It was no path of flowers
 Which through this world of ours,
 Belovèd of the Father, Thou didst tread ;
 And shall we in dismay
 Shrink from the narrow way,
 When clouds and darkness are around it spread ?
- mf* 5 Our eyes behold Thee not,
 Yet hast Thou not forgot
 Those who have placed their hope, their trust in Thee ;
c Before Thy Father's face
 Thou hast prepared a place,
f That where Thou art there they may also be.
- 3 O Thou Who art our life,
 Be with us through the strife :
p Thy holy head by rudest storms was bowed ;
c Raise Thou our eyes above,
 To see a Father's love Beam, like a bow of promise, through the cloud.
- p* 4 Even through the awful gloom
 Which hovers o'er the tomb,
c That light of love our guiding star shall be ;
 Our spirits shall not dread
 The shadowy way to tread, lead to Thee.

THE LORD JESUS CHRIST

Evelyns.

W. H. MONK.

A - men.

That in the name of Jesus every knee should bow, . . . and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.

mf In the name of Jesus
Every knee shall bow,
Every tongue confess Him
King of Glory now ;
'T is the Father's pleasure
We should call Him Lord
Who from the beginning
Was the mighty Word.

2 At His voice creation
Sprang at once to sight,
All the angel faces,
All the hosts of light,
Thrones and dominations,
Stars upon their way,
All the heavenly orders
In their great array.

p 3 Humbled for a season
To receive a name
From the lips of sinners
Unto whom He came,
Faithfully He bore it
Spotless to the last ;
c Brought it back victorious
When from death He passed.

mf 4 *Name Him, brothers, name Him
With love strong as death,
d But with awe and wonder
p And with bated breath ;
He is God the Saviour,
He is Christ the Lord,
c Ever to be worshipped,
Trusted, and adored.

mf 5 In your hearts enthrone Him ;
There let Him subdue
All that is not holy,
All that is not true :
c Crown Him as your Captain
In temptation's hour ;
Let His will enfold you
In its light and power.

f 6 Brothers, this Lord Jesus
Shall return again,
With His Father's glory,
With His angel train ;
For all wreaths of empire
Meet upon His brow,
And our hearts confess Him
King of Glory now. AMEN.

All glory, &c.

A-men.

D.C.

Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings Thou hast perfected praise.

Gloria, laus, et honor.

f ALL glory, laud, and honour
To Thee, Redeemer, King,
To Whom the lips of children
Made sweet hosannas ring!

mf 1 Thou art the King of Israel,
Thou David's royal Son,
Who in the Lord's name comest,
The King and Blessed One.

f All glory, &c.

mf 2 The company of angels
Are praising Thee on high;
And mortal men, and all things
Created, make reply.

mf 3 The people of the Hebrews
With palms before Thee went;
Our praise and prayer and anthems
Before Thee we present.

mf 4 To Thee before Thy passion
They sang their hymns of praise;
c To Thee, now high exalted,
Our melody we raise.

mf 5 Thou didst accept their praises;
Accept the prayers we bring,
Who in all good delightest,
Thou good and gracious King.

AMEN.

F. DE LA FEILLÉE.

Worthy is the Lamb That hath been slain to receive the power, and riches, and wisdom,
and might, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

f BLESSING and honour and glory and power,
Wisdom and riches and strength evermore
Give ye to Him Who our battle hath won,
Whose are the kingdom, the crown, and the throne.

2 Into the heaven of the heavens hath He gone ;
Sitteth He now in the joy of the throne ;
Weareth He now of the kingdom the crown ;
Singeth He now the new song with His own.

Unis. f 3 Soundeth the heaven of the heavens with His name ;
Ringeth the earth with His glory and fame ;
Ocean and mountain, stream, forest, and flower
Echo His praises and tell of His power.

Har. f 4 Ever ascendeth the song and the joy ;
Ever descendeth the love from on high ;
Blessing and honour and glory and praise,—
This is the theme of the hymns that we raise.

Unis. 5 Give we the glory and praise to the Lamb ;
Take we the robe and the harp and the palm ;
Sing we the song of the Lamb That was slain,
Dying in weakness, but rising to reign. AMEN.

E. J. HOPKINS.

By permission of Novello and Company, Limited.

By Him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually.

mf FOR the beauty of the earth,
For the beauty of the skies,
For the love which from our birth
Over and around us lies,
f Christ, our God, to Thee we raise
This our sacrifice of praise.

mf 2 For the beauty of each hour
Of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale, and tree and flower,
Sun and moon, and stars of light,
f Christ, our God, to Thee we raise
This our sacrifice of praise.

mf 3 For the joy of ear and eye,
For the heart's and mind's delight,
For the mystic harmony
Linking sense to sound and sight,
f Christ, our God, to Thee we raise
This our sacrifice of praise.

mf 4 For the joy of human love,
Brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth and friends above,
For all gentle thoughts and mild,
f Christ, our God, to Thee we raise
This our sacrifice of praise.

5 For each perfect gift of Thine
To our race so freely given,
Graces human and divine,
Flowers of earth and buds of heaven,
Christ, our God, to Thee we raise
This our sacrifice of praise. AMEN.

H. HARRINGTON.

There is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

f O FOR a thousand tongues to sing
My dear Redeemer's praise,
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of His grace!

mf 2 My gracious Master and my God, Assist me to proclaim,

c To spread through all the earth abroad
The honours of Thy name.

p 3 Jesus! the name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease,
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life and health and peace.

mf 4 He breaks the power of cancelled sin,
He sets the prisoner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean,
His blood availed for me.

5 He speaks, and, listening to His voice,
New life the dead receive,
The mournful, broken hearts rejoice,
The humble poor believe.

f 6 Hear Him, ye deaf; His praise, ye dumb,
Your loosened tongues employ;
Ye blind, behold your Saviour come;
And leap, ye lame, for joy.

7 Look unto Him, ye nations; own
Your God, ye fallen race;
Look, and be saved through faith alone;
Be justified by grace.

THE LORD JESUS CHRIST.

St. Paul's (1st Tune).

127

J. B. CALKIN.

Voices in Unison.

The first system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is a single melodic line in G major (one sharp) and 4/2 time. The bottom two staves are a grand staff (treble and bass clef) providing harmonic accompaniment. The music begins with a repeat sign and a key signature change to B-flat major (two flats).

The second system continues the musical piece with the same three-staff structure. It features a variety of chordal textures and melodic lines across the staves.

The third system continues the musical piece. The top staff has a melodic line with some rests, while the grand staff below provides a full harmonic accompaniment.

The fourth system is the final system on the page. It includes a dynamic marking of f (forte) at the beginning. The top staff concludes with a double bar line and the text "Last verse." The grand staff continues with accompaniment, including a dynamic marking of f and the text "A - men." at the end. The word "Harmony." is written above the grand staff.

Colyton (2nd Tune).

W. H. MONK.

I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

mf SAVIOUR, blessed Saviour,
Listen while we sing,
Hearts and voices raising
Praises to our King.
All we have to offer,
All we hope to be,
Body, soul, and spirit,
All we yield to Thee.

mp 2 Nearer, ever nearer,
Christ, we draw to Thee,
Deep in adoration
Bending low the knee.

p Thou for our redemption
Cam'st on earth to die ;

c Thou, that we might follow,
f Hast gone up on high.

mf 3 Great, and ever greater,
Are Thy mercies here ;
True and everlasting
Are the glories there,
Where no pain or sorrow,
Toil or care, is known,
Where the angel legions
Circle round Thy throne.

4 Clearer still, and clearer,
Dawns the light from heaven,
In our sadness bringing News of sins forgiven :
f Life has lost its shadows,
Pure the light within ;
Thou hast shed Thy radiance
On a world of sin.

mf 5 Onward, ever onward,
Journeying o'er the road
Worn by saints before us, Journeying on to God,
c Leaving all behind us,
May we hasten on,
Backward never looking Till the prize is won.

f 6 Higher then, and higher,
Bear the ransomed soul,
Earthly toils forgotten,
Saviour, to its goal,
Where, in joys unthought of,
Saints with angels sing,
Never weary raising
Praises to their King. AMEN.

SPIESS'S Gesangbuch, 1745.

(Arr. by W. H. HAVERGAL.)

To the only wise God our Saviour be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

f TO God the only wise,
Our Saviour and our King,
Let all the saints below the skies
Their humble praises bring.

mf 2 'Tis His almighty love,
His counsel, and His care
Preserve us safe from sin and death
And every hurtful snare.

3 He will present our souls,
Unblemished and complete,
c Before the glory of His face,
With joys divinely great.

mf 4 Then all the chosen seed
Shall meet around the throne,
Shall bless the conduct of His grace,
And make His wonders known.

f 5 To our Redeemer God
Wisdom and power belong,
Immortal crowns of majesty,
And everlasting song. AMEN.

SCHEFFLER'S *Geistliche
Hirtenlieder*, 1657.

The morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy.

f SONGS of praise the angels sang,
Heaven with hallelujahs rang,
When Jehovah's work begun,
When He spake and it was done.

2 Songs of praise awoke the morn
When the Prince of Peace was born ;
Songs of praise arose when He Captive led captivity.

mf 3 Heaven and earth must pass away ;
c Songs of praise shall crown that day :
f God will make new heavens and earth ;
Songs of praise shall hail their birth.

p 4 And shall man alone be dumb
Till that glorious kingdom come ?
c No ! the Church delights to raise Psalms and hymns and songs of praise.

mf 5 Saints below, with heart and voice,
Still in songs of praise rejoice,
Learning here, by faith and love,
Songs of praise to sing above.

6 Borne upon their latest breath,
Songs of praise shall conquer death,
f Then, amidst eternal joy,
Songs of praise their powers employ. AMEN.

Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1

mf MIGHTY God, while angels bless Thee,
May a mortal sing Thy name?
Lord of men as well as angels,
Thou art every creature's theme.
Lord of every land and nation,
Ancient of eternal days,
c Sounded through the wide creation
f Be Thy just and endless praise.

mf For the grandeur of Thy nature,
Grand beyond a seraph's thought;
For the wonders of creation,
Works with skill and kindness wrought;
For Thy providence, that governs
Through Thine empire's wide domain,
Wings an angel, guides a sparrow,—
Blessed be Thy gentle reign!

3

But Thy rich, Thy free redemption,
Bright, though veiled in darkness long,—
Thought is poor, and poor expression,—
Who can sing that wondrous song?
Brightness of the Father's glory,
Shall Thy praise unuttered lie?
c Break, my tongue, such guilty silence!
Sing the Lord Who came to die.

mf From the highest throne of glory
p To the cross of deepest woe
Thou didst stoop to ransom captives;
c Flow my praise, for ever flow.
Re-ascend, immortal Saviour!
Leave Thy footstool, take Thy throne:
f Thence return, and reign for ever;
Be the kingdom all Thine own. AMEN.

Let them also that love Thy name be joyful in Thee.

mf HOW sweet the name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear!
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
And drives away his fear.

p 2 It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary rest.

mf 3 Dear name! the rock on which I build,
My shield and hiding-place,
My never-failing treasury, filled
With boundless stores of grace.

f 4 Jesus, my Shepherd, Husband, Friend,
My Prophet, Priest, and King,
My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
Accept the praise I bring.

mf 5 Weak is the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought;
c But, when I see Thee as Thou art,
I'll praise Thee as I ought.

Jesu, nostra redemptio, amor, et desiderium.

f O CHRIST, our hope, our hearts' desire,
Redemption's only spring,
Creator of the world art Thou,
Its Saviour and its King.

mf 2 How vast the mercy and the love
Which laid our sins on Thee,

p And led Thee to a cruel death,
c To set Thy people free!

f 3 But now the bonds of death are burst,
The ransom has been paid,
And Thou art on Thy Father's throne,
In glorious robes arrayed.

mf 4 O may Thy mighty love prevail
Our sinful souls to spare;
O may we come before Thy throne,
And find acceptance there.

f 5 O Christ, be Thou our present joy,

2 Jesus, Bread and Wine art Thou,
 Wine and bread for ever :
 Never canst Thou cease to feed,
 Or refresh us never.
 Feed we still on bread divine ;
 Drink we still this heavenly wine.

3 Jesus, Love and Life art Thou,
 Life and love for ever :
 Ne'er to quicken shalt Thou cease,
 Or to love us never.
 All of life and love we need
 Is in Thee, in Thee indeed.

mp 4 Jesus, Peace and Joy art Thou,
 Joy and peace for ever :
 Joy that fades not, changes not,
 Peace that leaves us never.
 Joy and peace we have in Thee,
 Now and through eternity.

f 5 Jesus, Song and Strength art Thou,
 Strength and song for ever :
 Strength that never can decay,
 Song that ceaseth never.
 Still to us this strength and song

 'Awake, Jerusalem, at last !'
 Midnight hears the welcome voices,
 And at the thrilling cry rejoices :
 'Come forth, ye virgins, night is past !
 The Bridegroom comes ; awake,
 Your lamps with gladness take ;
 Hallelujah !
 And for His marriage-feast prepare,
 For ye must go to meet Him there.'

mf 2 Zion hears the watchmen singing,
 And all her heart with joy is springing ;
 She wakes, she rises from her gloom ;
 For her Lord comes down all-glorious,
 The strong in grace, in truth victorious ;
 Her Star is risen, her Light is come !
mp Ah ! come, Thou blessèd One,
c God's own belovèd Son ;
f Hallelujah !
mf We follow till the halls we see Where Thou hast bid us sup with Thee.

f 3 Now let all the heavens adore Thee,
 And men and angels sing before Thee
 With harp and cymbal's clearest tone ;
 Of one pearl each shining portal,
 Where we are with the choir immortal
 Of angels round Thy dazzling throne ;
 Nor eye hath seen, nor ear
 Hath yet attained to hear What there is ours ;
ff But we rejoice, and sing to Thee
 Our hymn of joy eternally. AMEN.

 With hallelujahs clear.

mf 3 Ye wise and holy virgins,
 Now raise your voices higher,
 Till, in glad songs of jubilee,
 They meet the angel choir.

Christ also loved the church, and gave Himself for it : . . . that He might present it to Himself a glorious church.

mf THE Church's one foundation
 Is Jesus Christ her Lord :
 She is His new creation
 By water and the word ;
 From heaven He came and sought her
 To be His holy bride ;
d With His own blood He bought her
 And for her life He died.

mf 2 Elect from every nation,
 Yet one o'er all the earth,
 Her charter of salvation
 One Lord, one faith, one birth,
 One holy name she blesses,
 Partakes one holy food,
 And to one hope she presses,
 With every grace endured.

p 3 Though with a scornful wonder Men see her sore oppressed,
 By schisms rent asunder,
 By heresies distressed,
c Yet saints their watch are keeping,
 Their cry goes up, 'How long !'
mf And soon the night of weeping
 Shall be the morn of song.

p 4 'Mid toil and tribulation,
 And tumult of her war,
 She waits the consummation
 Of peace for evermore,
c Till with the vision glorious
 Her longing eyes are blest, mf And the great Church victorious
 Shall be the Church at rest.

5 Yet she on earth hath union
 With God the Three in One,
 And mystic sweet communion
 With those whose rest is won.
 O happy ones and holy !
 Lord, give us grace that we,
 Like them, the meek and lowly,
 On high may dwell with Thee. AMEN.

W. H. CALLCOTT.

(Last two lines from MENDELSSOHN.)

Hear Thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven Thy dwelling place.

mp WHEN the weary, seeking rest,
To Thy goodness flee ;
When the heavy-laden cast
All their load on Thee ;
When the troubled, seeking peace,
On Thy name shall call ;
When the sinner, seeking life,
At Thy feet shall fall ;
c Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry,
d In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.

mf When the man of toil and care,
In the city crowd,
When the shepherd on the moor,
Names the name of God ;
When the learnèd and the high,
Tired of earthly fame,
Upon higher joys intent,
Name the blessed name ;
c Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry,
d In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.

2

mp When the worldling, sick at heart,
Lifts his soul above ;
When the prodigal looks back
To his Father's love ;
When the proud man, in his pride,
Stoops to seek Thy face ;
When the burdened brings his guilt
To Thy throne of grace ;
c Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry,
d In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.

mf When the child, with grave fresh lip,
Youth, or maiden fair,
d When the aged, weak and grey,
Seek Thy face in prayer ;
p When the widow weeps to Thee,
Sad and lone and low ;
When the orphan brings to Thee
All his orphan woe ;
c Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry,
d In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.

mf When the stranger asks a home,
All his toils to end ;
When the hungry craveth food,
And the poor a friend ;
When the sailor on the wave
Bows the fervent knee ;
When the soldier on the field
Lifts his heart to Thee ;
c Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry,
d In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.

6 mp When creation, in her pangs,

Heaves her heavy groan ;
When Thy Salem's exiled sons
Breathe their bitter moan ;
p When Thy widowed, weeping Church,
Looking for a home,
Sendeth up her silent sigh,
'Come, Lord Jesus, come !'
c Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry,
d In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.

[May be sung to 'Deerhurst,' No. 5.]

Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God.

f GLORIOUS things of thee are spoken,
 Zion, city of our God;
 He Whose word cannot be broken
 Formed thee for His own abode.
 On the Rock of Ages founded,
 What can shake thy sure repose?
 With salvation's walls surrounded,
 Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.

2 See! the streams of living waters,
 Springing from eternal love,
 Well supply thy sons and daughters,
 And all fear of want remove.

Who can faint while such a river
 Ever flows their thirst to assuage,—
 Grace, which, like the Lord, the Giver,
 Never fails from age to age?

3 Blest inhabitants of Zion,
 Washed in the Redeemer's blood,
 Jesus, Whom their souls rely on,
 Makes them kings and priests to God.
 'Tis His love His people raises
 Over self to reign as kings,
 And, as priests, His solemn praises
 Each for a thank-offering brings.

AMEN.

Ye are come unto Mount Zion, . . . and to the spirits of just men made perfect.

mf COME, let us join our friends above
That have obtained the prize,
And on the eagle wings of love
To joys celestial rise.

2 Let all the saints terrestrial sing
With those to glory gone;
For all the servants of our King
In earth and heaven are one.

3 One family we dwell in Him,
One Church, above, beneath,
Though now divided by the stream,
The narrow stream, of death.

4 One army of the living God,
To His command we bow;
Part of His host have crossed the flood,
And part are crossing now.

O that the word were given!

And land us all in heaven. AMEN.

This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.

mf TELL me the old, old story
Of unseen things above,

Of Jesus and His love.

2
Tell me the story simply,

3
mf Tell me the story slowly,
That I may take it in,
That wonderful redemption,
God's remedy for sin.

4
Tell me the story often,
For I forget so soon ;
The early dew of morning
Has passed away at noon.

5 p Tell me the story softly,
With earnest tones and grave ;
Remember I'm the sinner
Whom Jesus came to save.

6
mf Tell me the story always,
If you would really be d In any time of trouble
A comforter to me.

7
mf Tell me the same old story,
When you have cause to fear
That this world's empty glory
Is costing me too dear.

8 c Yes ! and, when that world's glory
Shall dawn upon my soul,
Tell me the old, old story,
f 'Christ Jesus makes thee whole.' AMEN.

A-men.

Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.

mf CHILD of sin and sorrow,
 Filled with dismay,
 Wait not for to-morrow,
 Yield thee to-day.
 Heaven bids thee come While yet there's room;
d Child of sin and sorrow,
p Hear and obey.

mf 2 Child of sin and sorrow,
 Why wilt thou die?
 Come, while thou canst borrow Help from on high;
 Grieve not that love
 Which, from above,
d Child of sin and sorrow,
p Would bring thee nigh.

mf 3 Child of sin and sorrow,
The moments glide
Like the flitting arrow,
Or the rushing tide ;
c Ere time is o'er,
Heaven's grace implore ;
d Child of sin and sorrow,
In Christ confide.

mf 4 Child of sin and sorrow,
Cease now the tear ;
Wait not for to-morrow ;
Banish thy fear.
Christ now receives
Him who believes ;
Child of sin and sorrow,
f Be of good cheer. AMEN.

Seek ye the Lord while He may be found.

mf HO! ye that thirst, approach the spring
Where living waters flow :
Free to that sacred fountain all
Without a price may go.

p 3 Let sinners quit their evil ways,
Their evil thoughts forgo ;
And God, when they to Him return,
Returning grace will show.

2 Seek ye the Lord, while yet His ear
Is open to your call ;
While offered mercy still is near,
Before His footstool fall.

c 4 He pardons with o'erflowing love ;
'For,' hear the voice Divine !
'My nature is not like to yours,

Beyond earth's spot extend,
As far My thoughts, as far My ways,

I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.

- | | |

| mf 1 COME, ye sinners, poor and wretched,
Weak and wounded, sick and sore ;
Jesus ready stands to save you,
Full of pity joined with power :
He is able,
He is willing ; doubt no more. | 3 p Come, ye weary, heavy-laden,
Bruised and broken by the fall ;
If you tarry till you're better,
You will never come at all :
mf Not the righteous—
Sinners Jesus came to call. |
| 2
Let not conscience make you linger,
Nor of fitness fondly dream ;
All the fitness He requireth
Is to feel your need of Him :
c This He gives you ;
'T is the Spirit's rising beam. | 4
Lo ! the incarnate God, ascended,
Pleads the merit of His blood ;
Venture on Him, venture wholly ;
Let no other trust intrude :
f None but Jesus
Can do helpless sinners good. AMEN.

p COME, ye souls by sin afflicted,
 Bowed with fruitless sorrow down,
 By the broken law convicted,
 Through the cross behold the crown ;
mf Look to Jesus ;
 Mercy flows through Him alone.

mf Blessed are the eyes that see Him,
 Blest the ears that hear His voice ;
 Blessed are the souls that trust Him,
 And in Him alone rejoice ;
 His commandments

2 To-day Thy gate is open,

*In His days shall the righteous flourish ; and abundance of peace

The Lord Jesus the same night in which He was betrayed took bread.

- p* 'T WAS on that night when doomed mf 4 Then in His hands the cup He raised, to know And God anew He thanked and
The eager rage of every foe, praised,
That night in which He was betrayed, While kindness in His bosom glowed,
The Saviour of the world took bread; And from His lips salvation flowed.
- mf* 2 And, after thanks and glory given mp 5 'My blood I thus pour forth,' He
To Him That rules in earth and cries, heaven, 'To cleanse the soul in sin that lies,
That symbol of His flesh He broke, In this the covenant is sealed,
And thus to all His followers spoke: And Heaven's eternal grace revealed.
- p* 3 'My broken body thus I give mf 6 'With love to man this cup is fraught;
For you, for all; take, eat, and live; Let all partake the sacred draught;
And oft the sacred rite renew Through latest ages let it pour,
That brings My wondrous love to view.' In memory of My dying hour.'

p I NEED Thee, precious Jesus,
For I am full of sin ;

mf I need the love of Jesus
To cheer me on my way,
To guide my doubting footsteps,
To be my strength and stay.

p 3 I need Thee, precious Jesus ;

4 What though I wait the livelong night

 And wait till God appeareth.

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

f A SAFE stronghold our God is still,
A trusty shield and weapon ;
He'll help us clear from all the ill
That hath us now o'ertaken.

Strong mail of craft and power
He weareth in this hour ;
On earth is not his fellow.

2 With force of arms we nothing can,
Full soon were we down-ridden ;
c But for us fights the proper Man,
Whom God Himself hath bidden.
Ask ye who is this same ?
f Christ Jesus is His name,
The Lord Sabaoth's Son ;
He and no other one
Shall conquer in the battle.

3 And were this world all devils o'er
And watching to devour us,
We lay it not to heart so sore ;
Not they can overpower us.
And let the prince of ill
Look grim as e'er he will,
He harms us not a whit ;
For why, his doom is writ ;
A word shall quickly slay him.

4 God's word, for all their craft and force,
One moment will not linger,
But, spite of hell, shall have its course ;
'Tis written by His finger.

J. B. DYKES.

I flee unto Thee to hide me.

mf ROCK of Ages, cleft for me,
 Let me hide myself in Thee ;
 Let the water and the blood,
 From Thy riven side which flowed,
 Be of sin the double cure,
 Cleanse me from its guilt and power.

mp 2 Not the labours of my hands
 Can fulfil the law's demands ;
 Could my zeal no respite know,
 Could my tears for ever flow,
 All for sin could not atone ;
c Thou must save, and Thou alone.

mf 3 Nothing in my hand I bring,
 Simply to Thy cross I cling ;
 Naked, come to Thee for dress ;
 Helpless, look to Thee for grace ;
 Foul, I to the fountain fly ;

They that know Thy name will put their trust in Thee.

mf JESUS, I will trust Thee,
 Trust Thee with my soul,
 Guilty, lost, and helpless ;
 Thou canst make me whole.
 There is none in heaven
 Or on earth like Thee ;
 Thou hast died for sinners—
 Therefore, Lord, for me.

2 Jesus, I will trust Thee,
 Name of matchless worth,
 Spoken by the angel
 At Thy wondrous birth,

 On Thy cross of shame ;

c Sinners read and worship,
 Trusting in that name.

mf 3 Jesus, I will trust Thee,
 Pondering Thy ways,

 All Thine earthly days.
 Sinners gathered round Thee,
 Lepers sought Thy face,

f 4 Jesus, I will trust Thee,
 Trust without a doubt ;
 Whosoever cometh
 Thou wilt not cast out.
 Faithful is Thy promise ;
 Precious is Thy blood ;
 These my soul's salvation,

If God be for us, who can be against us?

- mf* LET Christian faith and hope dispel
 The fears of guilt and woe;
 The Lord Almighty is our Friend,
 And who can prove a foe?
- 2 He Who His Son, most dear and loved,
 Gave up for us to die,
 Shall He not all things freely give
 That goodness can supply?
- 3 Behold the best, the greatest gift
 Of everlasting love!
 Behold the pledge of peace below
 And perfect bliss above!
- f* 4 Where is the judge who can condemn,
 Since God hath justified?
 Who shall charge those with guilt or crime
 For whom the Saviour died?
- mf* 5 The Saviour died, but rose again
 Triumphant from the grave,
 And pleads our cause at God's right hand,
 Omnipotent to save.
- 6 Who then can e'er divide us more
 From Jesus and His love,
 Or break the sacred chain that binds
 The earth to heaven above?
- f* 7 Let troubles rise, and terrors frown,
 And days of darkness fall,
 Through Him all dangers we'll defy,
 And more than conquer all.

He exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

mf O HOLY Saviour, Friend unseen,
The faint, the weak, on Thee may lean :
Help me, throughout life's varying scene,
By faith to cling to Thee.

2 Blest with communion so divine,
Take what Thou wilt, shall I repine
When, as the branches to the vine,
My soul may cling to Thee ?

mp 3 Far from her home, fatigued, oppressed,
Here she has found a place of rest,—
An exile still, yet not unblest
While she can cling to Thee.

4 What though the world deceitful prove,
And earthly friends and joys remove,
With patient, uncomplaining love
Still would I cling to Thee.

p 5 Oft when I seem to tread alone
Some barren waste with thorns o'ergrown,
A voice of love, in gentlest tone,
Whispers, 'Still cling to Me.'

mf 6 Though faith and hope awhile be tried,

While, as my Strength, my Rock, my All,
Saviour, I cling to Thee ? AMEN.

Scottish Psalter, 1615.

They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength.

mf HAST thou not known, hast thou not heard,
That firm remains on high
The everlasting throne of Him
Who formed the earth and sky?

2 Art thou afraid His power shall fail
When comes thy evil day?
And can an all-creating arm
Grow weary or decay?

f 3 Supreme in wisdom as in power
The Rock of Ages stands,
Though Him thou canst not see, nor trace
The working of His hands.

mf 4 He gives the conquest to the weak,
Supports the fainting heart;
And courage in the evil hour
His heavenly aids impart.

mp 5 Mere human power shall fast decay,
And youthful vigour cease;
c But they who wait upon the Lord
In strength shall still increase.

mf 6 They with unwearied feet shall tread
The path of life divine,
With growing ardour onward move,
With growing brightness shine.

Their wings are faith and love—

They rise to heaven above. AMEN.

[May be sung to 'Hanover,' No. 12.]

The Lord will provide.

mf THOUGH troubles assail
And dangers affright,
Though friends should all fail
And foes all unite,
c Yet one thing secures us,
Whatever betide,
The Scripture assures us
f The Lord will provide.

mf 2 The birds without barn
Or storehouse are fed ;
From them let us learn
To trust for our bread ;
His saints what is fitting Shall ne'er be denied,
So long as 't is written,
f The Lord will provide.

mf 3 His call we obey,
Like Abram of old,
Not knowing our way,
But faith makes us bold ;
For, though we are strangers,
We have a good guide,
And trust, in all dangers,
f The Lord will provide.

mf 4 No strength of our own
Or goodness we claim,
Yet, since we have known
The Saviour's great name,

Him that cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out.

p JUST as I am, without one plea
But that Thy blood was shed for me,
And that Thou bidd'st me come to Thee,
O Lamb of God, I come.

2 Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot,
To Thee, Whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come.

3 Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
Fightings and fears within, without,
O Lamb of God, I come.

c 4 Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind,—
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in Thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come.

mf 5 Just as I am, Thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
Because Thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come.

c 6 Just as I am—Thy love unknown

Now to be Thine, yea, Thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.

The breadth, length, depth, and height to prove,
Here for a season, then above,

He was lost, and is found.

f REDEEMED, restored, forgiven,
Through Jesus' precious blood,
Heirs of His home in heaven,
O praise our pardoning God !
Praise Him in tuneful measures
Who gave His Son to die ;
c Praise Him Whose sevenfold treasures Enrich and sanctify !

p 2 Once on the dreary mountain
We wandered far and wide,
Far from the cleansing fountain,
Far from the pierced side ;
c But Jesus sought and found us,
And washed our guilt away ;
With cords of love He bound us
To be His own for aye.

mf 3 Dear Master, Thine the glory
Of each recovered soul ;
Ah ! who can tell the story
Of love that made us whole ?
Not ours, not ours the merit ;
Be Thine alone the praise,
And ours a thankful spirit
To serve Thee all our days.

mp 4 Now keep us, Holy Saviour,
In Thy true love and fear ;
And grant us of Thy favour
The grace to persevere,
c Till in Thy new creation,
Earth's time-long travail o'er,
We find our full salvation,
f And praise Thee evermore. AMEN.

Let me as a child receive,
What to-morrow may betide

mp THOU knowest, Lord, the weariness and sorrow
 Of the sad heart that comes to Thee for rest ;
 Cares of to-day, and burdens for to-morrow,
 Blessings implored, and sins to be confessed,—
 We come before Thee at Thy gracious word,
 And lay them at Thy feet : Thou knowest, Lord.

2 Thou knowest all the past : how long and blindly
 On the dark mountains the lost wanderer strayed ;

c How the good Shepherd followed, and how kindly
 He bore it home, upon His shoulders laid,
 And healed the bleeding wounds, and soothed the pain,
 And brought back life and hope and strength again.

mp 3 Thou knowest all the present : each temptation,
 Each toilsome duty, each foreboding fear ;
 All to each one assigned of tribulation,
 Or to beloved ones than self more dear ;
d All pensive memories, as we journey on,
 Longings for vanished smiles and voices gone.

mp 4 Thou knowest all the future : gleams of gladness
 By stormy clouds too quickly overcast ;
 Hours of sweet fellowship, and parting sadness,
p And the dark river to be crossed at last ;
c O what could hope and confidence afford
 To tread that path, but this, 'Thou knowest, Lord' ?

mf 5 Therefore we come, Thy gentle call obeying,
 And lay our sins and sorrows at Thy feet,
 On everlasting strength our weakness staying,
 Clothed in Thy robe of righteousness complete :

 And follow on to know as we are known. AMEN.

In Whom we trust that He will yet deliver us.

mf IF thou but suffer God to guide thee,
And hope in Him through all thy ways,
He'll give thee strength, whate'er betide thee,
And bear thee through the evil days ;
Who trusts in God's unchanging love
Builds on the rock that nought can move.

p 2 What can these anxious cares avail thee,
These never-ceasing moans and sighs ?
What can it help if thou bewail thee
O'er each dark moment as it flies ?
Our cross and trials do but press
The heavier for our bitterness.

mf 3 Only be still, and wait His leisure
In cheerful hope, with heart content
To take whate'er thy Father's pleasure
And all-discerning love have sent ;
Nor doubt our inmost wants are known
To Him Who chose us for His own.

4 All are alike before the Highest ;
'Tis easy for our God, we know,
To raise thee up though low thou liest,
To make the rich man poor and low ;
True wonders still by Him are wrought
Who setteth up and brings to nought.

f 5 Sing, pray, and keep His ways unswerving ;
So do thine own part faithfully,
And trust His word,—though undeserving,
Thou yet shalt find it true for thee ;
God never yet forsook at need
The soul that trusted Him indeed. AMEN.

We will come unto him, and make Our abode with him.

mp MY spirit longs for Thee
Within my troubled breast,
Though I unworthy be
Of so divine a Guest.

2 Of so divine a Guest
Unworthy though I be,
Yet has my heart no rest
Unless it come from Thee.

3 Unless it come from Thee,
In vain I look around ;
In all that I can see
No rest is to be found.

4 No rest is to be found
But in Thy blessed love ;

c O let my wish be crowned,
And send it from above. AMEN.

A musical score for the song "The Rose Tree". The score is written for two staves, Treble and Bass clef, in the key of D major (two sharps) and 4/2 time. The melody is primarily in the Treble staff, with the Bass staff providing a harmonic accompaniment. The piece consists of two measures, each followed by a repeat sign. The first measure of the first system contains a whole note chord in the Treble staff and a half note chord in the Bass staff. The second measure of the first system contains a whole note chord in the Treble staff and a half note chord in the Bass staff. The second system follows a similar pattern, with a whole note chord in the Treble staff and a half note chord in the Bass staff. The piece ends with a double bar line.

A musical score for the song "The Rose Tree". It consists of two staves, a treble staff and a bass staff, both in the key of D major (indicated by two sharps: F# and C#). The melody is written in the treble staff, and the accompaniment is in the bass staff. The music is in 4/4 time. The score is divided into two systems by a double bar line. The first system contains four measures, and the second system contains three measures. The melody is a simple, folk-like tune, and the accompaniment provides a steady harmonic support.

Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

p JESUS, meek and gentle,
Son of God most high,
Pitying, loving Saviour,
Hear Thy children's cry.

mf 2 Pardon our offences;
Loose our captive chains;
Break down every idol
Which our soul detains;

f 3 Give us holy freedom ;
Fill our hearts with love ;
Draw us, holy Jesus,
To the realms above ;

mf 4 Lead us on our journey ;
Be Thyself the Way
Through terrestrial darkness
To celestial day.

p 5 Jesus, meek and gentle,
Son of God most high,
Pitying, loving Saviour,

*He dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven :
and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it.*

- mf* NEARER, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!
Even though it be a cross
That raiseth me,
c Still all my song would be,
'Nearer, my God, to Thee,
d Nearer to Thee !'
- p* 2 Though, like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone,
c Yet in my dreams I'd be Nearer, my God, to Thee,
d Nearer to Thee !
- mf* 3 There let the way appear
Steps unto heaven,
All that Thou sendest me
In mercy given,
Angels to beckon me
c Nearer, my God, to Thee,
d Nearer to Thee !
- mf* 4 Then, with my waking thoughts
Bright with Thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs Bethel I'll raise ;
c So by my woes to be Nearer, my God, to Thee,
d Nearer to Thee !
- f* 5 Or if on joyful wing
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upwards I fly,
c Still all my song shall be,
'Nearer, my God, to Thee,
d Nearer to Thee !' AMEN.

There I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy-seat.

- mf* FROM every stormy wind that blows,
 From every swelling tide of woes,
 There is a calm, a sure retreat;
p 'T is found beneath the mercy-seat.
- mf* 2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
 The oil of gladness on our heads,
 A place than all beside more sweet;
p It is the blood-stained mercy-seat.
- mf* 3 There is a spot where spirits blend,
 And friend holds fellowship with friend;
 Though sundered far, by faith they meet
 Around one common mercy-seat.
- p* 4 Ah! whither could we flee for aid
 When tempted, desolate, dismayed,
 Or how the host of hell defeat,
 Had suffering saints no mercy-seat?
- mf* 5 There, there on eagle wing we soar,
 And time and sense seem all no more,
c And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
 And glory crowns the mercy-seat. AMEN.

Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation.

- mf* O FOR a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame,
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb!
- p* 2 Where is the blessedness I knew
When first I saw the Lord?
Where is the soul-refreshing view
Of Jesus and His word?
- d* 3 What peaceful hours I once enjoyed!
How sweet their memory still!
But they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.
- mf* 4 Return, O Holy Dove! return,
Sweet messenger of rest!
d I hate the sins that made Thee mourn
And drove Thee from my breast.
- mf* 5 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from Thy throne,
And worship only Thee.
- 6 So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb. AMEN.

For all my way hath miry been :
Be it by water or by fire,

p O make me clean !

mf 2 If clearer vision Thou impart,
Grateful and glad my soul shall be ;
But yet to have a purer heart

Accept these hands to labour,
These hearts to trust and love,
And deign with them to hasten
Thy kingdom from above.

2 As labourers in Thy vineyard,

d Lord, send us out to be,
Content to bear the burden
Of weary days for Thee,

p Content to ask no wages,
When Thou shalt call us home,
But to have shared the travail
That makes Thy kingdom come.

mf 3 Be with us, God the Father,
Be with us, God the Son,
Be with us, God the Spirit,
O blessed Three in One!

c Make us a royal priesthood,
Thee rightly to adore,

What shall I render unto the Lord for all His benefits toward me ?

p SAVIOUR, Thy dying love
Thou gavest me,
Nor should I aught withhold,
My Lord, from Thee ;
c In love my soul would bow,
My heart fulfil its vow,
Some offering bring Thee now,
Something for Thee.

p 2 At the blest mercy-seat,
Pleading for me,
My feeble faith looks up,
Jesus, to Thee :
c Help me the cross to bear,
Thy wondrous love declare,
Some song to raise, or prayer,
Something for Thee.

mf 3 Give me a faithful heart,
Likeness to Thee,
That each departing day
Henceforth may see
Some work of love begun,
Some deed of kindness done,

Thy gifts so free—
In joy, in grief, through life,
O Lord, for Thee !
And when Thy face I see,

 Who will serve the King ?
 Who will be His helpers
 Other lives to bring ?
 Who will leave the world's side ?
 Who will face the foe ?
 Who is on the Lord's side ?
 Who for Him will go ?
p By Thy call of mercy,
c By Thy grace Divine,
 We are on the Lord's side,

 Not for crown and palm,
 Enter we the army,
 Raise the warrior psalm,
p But for love that claimeth Lives for whom He died ;
c He whom Jesus nameth
 Must be on His side.
f By Thy love constraining,
 By Thy grace Divine,
 We are on the Lord's side,
 Saviour, we are Thine.

p 3 Jesus, Thou hast bought us,
 Not with gold or gem,
 But with Thine own life-blood
c For Thy diadem.
 With Thy blessing filling
 Each who comes to Thee,

Thou hast made us willing,
 Thou hast made us free,
f By Thy grand redemption,
 By Thy grace Divine,
 We are on the Lord's side,
 Saviour, we are Thine.

mf 4 Fierce may be the conflict,
 Strong may be the foe,
c But the King's own army

Hull (1st Tune).

Handwritten musical score for the tune 'Hull (1st Tune)'. It consists of three systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The key signature has one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is 4/2. The first system contains 16 measures. The second system contains 16 measures, with a repeat sign at the beginning of the second half. The third system contains 16 measures, ending with a double bar line. The text 'A - men.' is written below the final measure of the third system.

Westminster College (2nd Tune).

Abridged from KÖPPHEL'S
Psalmen und Geistliche Lieder,
 Strasburg, 1537. (Ps. 113.)

Handwritten musical score for the tune 'Westminster College (2nd Tune)'. It consists of two systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The key signature has three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and the time signature is 3/2. The first system contains 16 measures. The second system contains 16 measures, ending with a double bar line.

[When the second tune is sung, the last verse may be in unison.]

Shall not God avenge His own elect, which cry day and night unto Him?

Verzage nicht, du Häuflein klein.

mf FEAR not, O little flock, the foe
Who madly seeks your overthrow;
Dread not his rage and power;
What though your courage sometimes faints,
His seeming triumph o'er God's saints
Lasts but a little hour.

2 Be of good cheer; your cause belongs
To Him Who can avenge your wrongs;
Leave it to Him, our Lord:
Though hidden yet from all our eyes,
He sees the Gideon who shall rise
To save us and His word.

f 3 As true as God's own word is true,
Nor earth nor hell with all their crew
Against us shall prevail:
A jest and byword are they grown;
God is with us, we are His own;
Our victory cannot fail.

mf 4 Amen! Lord Jesus, grant our prayer;
Great Captain, now Thine arm make bare,
Fight for us once again;

ff So shall Thy saints and martyrs raise
A mighty chorus to Thy praise,
World without end. Amen. AMEN.

Stand up for Jesus.

427

J. BARNBY.

[May be sung to 'Morning Light,' No. 224.]

Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

mf STAND up, stand up for Jesus !
 Ye soldiers of the cross ;
 Lift high His royal banner,
 It must not suffer loss.

f From victory unto victory
 His army shall He lead,
 Till every foe is vanquished,
 And Christ is Lord indeed.

mf 2 Stand up, stand up for Jesus !
 The trumpet-call obey ;
 Forth to the mighty conflict
 In this His glorious day !
 Ye that are men, now serve Him Against unnumbered foes ;

f Your courage rise with danger,
 And strength to strength oppose.

mf 3 Stand up, stand up for Jesus !
 Stand in His strength alone ;

d The arm of flesh will fail you ;
 Ye dare not trust your own.

f Put on the gospel armour ;
 Each piece put on with prayer ;
 Where duty calls, or danger,
 Be never wanting there.

mf 4 Stand up, stand up for Jesus !
 The strife will not be long ;
 This day the noise of battle,
 The next the victor's song.

Unis. f To him that overcometh
 A crown of life shall be ;
 He with the King of Glory
 Shall reign eternally. AMEN.

I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

mf

FIGHT the good fight
With all thy might;
Christ is thy strength, and Christ thy right.
Lay hold on life, and it shall be Thy joy and crown eternally.

2

Run the straight race
Through God's good grace,
Lift up thine eyes, and seek His face;
Life with its way before us lies;
Christ is the path, and Christ the prize.

cmf

3

Cast care aside;
Upon thy Guide
Lean, and His mercy will provide,— Lean, and the trusting soul shall prove
Christ is its life, and Christ its love.

Faint not, nor fear;
His arms are near;
He changeth not, and thou art dear;
Only believe, and thou shalt see
That Christ is all in all to thee.

Again a little while, and ye shall see Me.

 A little while, faith's flickering lamp to trim,—

Komm mein Herze, komm mein Schatz.

Derived from

G. JOSEPH.

When the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto Him; and He laid His hands on every one of them, and healed them.

mf AT even, ere the sun was set,
p The sick, O Lord, around Thee lay;
c O in what divers pains they met!
c O with what joy they went away!

mf 2 Once more 'tis eventide, and we,
 Oppressed with various ills, draw near:
 What if Thy form we cannot see,
 We know and feel that Thou art here.

mp 3 O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel:
 For some are sick, and some are sad,
 And some have never loved Thee well,
 And some have lost the love they had;

4 And some are pressed with worldly care
 And some are tried with sinful doubt;
 And some such grievous passions tear
 That only Thou canst cast them out;

5 And some have found the world is vain,
 Yet from the world they break not free;
 And some have friends who give them pain,
 Yet have not sought a friend in Thee;

6 And none, O Lord, have perfect rest,
 For none are wholly free from sin;
 And they who fain would serve Thee best
 Are conscious most of wrong within.

p 7 O Saviour Christ, Thou too art Man;
 Thou hast been troubled, tempted, tried;
 Thy kind but searching glance can scan
 The very wounds that shame would hide;

Unis. c 8 Thy touch has still its ancient power;
 No word from Thee can fruitless fall:

Har. d Hear, in this solemn evening hour,
p And in Thy mercy heal us all. AMEN.

Eventide.

477

W. H. MONK.

Abide with us : for it is toward evening, and the day is now far spent.

mp

A BIDE with me : fast falls the eventide ;
The darkness deepens ; Lord, with me abide :
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.

p

2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day ;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away ;
Change and decay in all around I see :
O Thou Who changest not, abide with me.

mp

3 Not a brief glance I beg, a passing word ;
But, as Thou dwelledst with Thy disciples, Lord,
Familiar, condescending, patient, free,
Come, not to sojourn, but abide, with me.

4

Come not in terrors, as the King of kings,
But kind and good, with healing in Thy wings,
Tears for all woes, a heart for every plea :
Come, Friend of sinners, and thus 'bide with me.

5

Thou on my head in early youth didst smile,
p And, though rebellious and perverse meanwhile,
Thou hast not left me, oft as I left Thee :

c

On to the close, O Lord, abide with me.

mf

6 I need Thy presence every passing hour ;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power ?
Who like Thyself my guide and stay can be ?
Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me.

Unis. 7 I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless ;
 Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness ;
f Where is death's sting ? where, grave, thy victory ?
 I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Har. p 8 Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes,
c Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies ;
f Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee :
d rall In life and death, O Lord, abide with me. AMEN.

Let my prayer be set forth as incense before Thee; the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

2

mf GOD'S bright temple in the skies
Night is opening slowly;
Let our song like incense rise
From a priesthood holy.
Sacred flame,
In Christ's name,
In our censers laying,
We come humbly praying.

For our loved ones all we pray;
Thou, God, looking hither,*
Dost see the near and far away
In one glance together;
Seen by Thee,
They and we,
Both that one eye under,
Are not far asunder.

* To be sung as follows:—

3

Where the sailor on the deep
 Rests on his rude pillow,
 Rocked a little while to sleep
 On the heaving billow,
 Save, Lord, save
 From storm wave,
 Guide with gentle motion
 Through the pathless ocean.

4

Where the sick lie wearily,
 Tossing in their sorrow,
 Murmuring oft the plaintive cry,
p 'Would that it were morrow!'
c O repress Sore distress;
mf Give them calm sweet sleeping
 In their night of weeping.

5

Where the tempted may have strayed
 Into scenes of danger,
 Let not virtue be betrayed;
 Rise, Lord, to avenge her;
 With strong arm
 Shield from harm,
 Or from trial rather Keep them, Holy Father.

6 p Where the penitent has gone

 To his chamber weeping,
 Leave, O leave him not alone,
 Bitter vigil keeping;
 Breathe, O Lord,
 Some soft word,
 All that true peace speaking
 His vexed heart is seeking.

7

mf Star lamps now are filled with fire,
 Heaven's broad dome revealing:
 Lord, we are a lowly choir,
 At Thy threshold kneeling;
 Yet our song,
 Even among
 Angels' songs ascending,
 Holds Thine ear attending. AMEN.

 Every thing rejoices
 In the mellow rays ;
 All earth's thousand voices
 Swell the psalm of praise.

2 God's free mercy streameth
 Over all the world,
 And His banner gleameth,
 Everywhere unfurled.
 Broad and deep and glorious,
 As the heaven above,
 Shines in might victorious
 His eternal love.

p 3 Lord, upon our blindness Thy pure radiance pour ;
mf For Thy loving-kindness
 Make us love Thee more ;
p And, when clouds are drifting
 Dark across our sky,
c Then, the veil uplifting,
 Father, be Thou nigh.

mf 4 We will never doubt Thee,
 Though Thou veil Thy light :
p Life is dark without Thee ;
c Death with Thee is bright.
f Light of light, shine o'er us
 On our pilgrim way ;
 Go Thou still before us
 To the endless day. AMEN.

The musical score is written for four parts: Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass. It is in the key of D major (indicated by two sharps) and 4/2 time. The score consists of four systems of staves. The first three systems are for the vocal parts, and the fourth system is for the organ or piano accompaniment, marked 'Harmony.' and 'A-men.' The music features a mix of half notes, quarter notes, and eighth notes, with some rests. The final measure of the fourth system is marked 'A-men.'

The harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

Musikalisches Handbuch,
Dir, dir, Jehovah, will ich singen. Hamburg, 1690.

That Thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which Thou hast said, My name shall be there.

mf THIS stone to Thee in faith we lay;
We build the temple, Lord, to Thee;
Thine eyes be open night and day
To guard this house and sanctuary.

p 2 Here, when Thy people seek Thy face,
And dying sinners pray to live,

c Hear Thou in heaven Thy dwelling-place,
And, when Thou hearest, O forgive.

mf 3 Here, when Thy messengers proclaim
The blessed gospel of Thy Son,
Still by the power of His great name
Be mighty signs and wonders done.

f 4 Hosanna to their heavenly King,
When children's voices raise that song,
Hosanna let their angels sing,
And heaven with earth the strain prolong.

p 5 But will, indeed, Jehovah deign
Here to abide, no transient guest?
Here will the world's Redeemer reign,
And here the Holy Spirit rest?

mf 6 That glory never hence depart!
Yet choose not, Lord, this house alone:

c Thy kingdom come to every heart;
In every bosom fix Thy throne. AMEN.

J. MAINZER.

[May be sung to 'Eisenach,' No. 468.]

Ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you : and ye shall be witnesses unto Me.

mf

POUR out Thy Spirit from on high ;
 Lord, Thine assembled servants bless ;
 Graces and gifts to each supply,
 And clothe them with Thy righteousness.

* 2 Within Thy temple when they stand,
 To teach the truth, as taught by Thee,
 Saviour, like stars in Thy right hand
 The angels of the churches be !

3 Wisdom and zeal and faith impart,
 Firmness with meekness from above,
 To bear Thy people on their heart,
 And love the souls whom Thou dost love ;

4 To watch and pray, and never faint ;
 By day and night strict guard to keep ;
 To warn the sinner, cheer the saint,
 Nourish Thy lambs, and feed Thy sheep ;

p 5 Then, when their work is finished here,
 In humble hope their charge resign.

c When the Chief Shepherd shall appear,
 O God, may they and we be Thine. AMEN.

5.—MARRIAGE.

St. George.

527

H. J. GAUNTLETT.

Jesus was called, and His disciples, to the marriage.

mf HOW welcome was the call,
 And sweet the festal lay,
 When Jesus deigned in Cana's hall
 To bless the marriage day!

f 2 And happy was the bride,
 And glad the bridegroom's heart,
 For He Who tarried at their side
 Bade grief and ill depart.

mf 3 His gracious power Divine
 The water vessels knew;
 And plenteous was the mystic wine
 The wondering servants drew.

p 4 O Lord of life and love,
 Come Thou again to-day;
c And bring a blessing from above
 That ne'er shall pass away.

mf 5 O bless, as erst of old,
 The bridegroom and the bride;
p Bless with the holier stream that flowed Forth from Thy pierced side.

mf 6 Before Thine altar-throne
 This mercy we implore:
c As Thou dost knit them, Lord, in one,
 So bless them evermore. AMEN.

Aurelia.

528

A musical score for the hymn 'Aurelia'. It is written in 4/2 time with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The score is arranged in four systems, each containing a treble staff and a bass staff. The music is primarily composed of chords and simple melodic lines. The final system concludes with the text 'A - men.' written above the treble staff.

Except the Lord build the house, they labour in vain that build it.

mf O FATHER all creating,
Whose wisdom, love, and power
First bound two lives together
In Eden's primal hour,
To-day to these Thy children
Thine earliest gifts renew,—
A home by Thee made happy,
A love by Thee kept true.

2 O Saviour, Guest most bounteous
Of old in Galilee,
Vouchsafe to-day Thy presence
With these who call on Thee ;
Their store of earthly gladness
Transform to heavenly wine,
d And teach them, in the tasting,
To know the gift is Thine.

p 3 O Spirit of the Father,
Breathe on them from above,
So mighty in Thy pureness,
So tender in Thy love,
c That, guarded by Thy presence,
From sin and strife kept free,
mf Their lives may own Thy guidance;
Their hearts be ruled by Thee.

4 Except Thou build it, Father,
The house is built in vain ;
d Except Thou, Saviour, bless it,
The joy will turn to pain ;
c But nought can break the union
Of hearts in Thee made one,
f And love which Thou hast hallowed
Is endless love begun. AMEN.

♩ perfect Love.

529

J. BARNBY.

By permission of Novello and Company, Limited.

Be of one mind, live in peace ; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

mp O PERFECT Love, all human thought transcending, Lowly we kneel in prayer before Thy throne
mf That theirs may be the love which knows no ending Whom Thou for evermore dost join in one.

2 O perfect Life, be Thou their full assurance
 Of tender charity and steadfast faith,
 Of patient hope, and quiet brave endurance,
 With childlike trust that fears nor pain nor death.

3 Grant them the joy which brightens earthly sorrow ;
 Grant them the peace which calms all earthly strife,
 c And to life's day the glorious unknown morrow
 That dawns upon eternal love and life. AMEN.

H. J. GAUNTLETT.

As the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee.

mf THE voice that breathed o'er Eden,
That earliest wedding day,
The primal marriage blessing,
It hath not passed away;

2 Still in the pure espousal
Of Christian man and maid
The Holy Three are with us,
The threefold grace is said.

mp 3 Be present, Holy Father,
To give away this bride,
As Eve Thou gav'st to Adam
Out of his own pierced side;

4 Be present, Holy Saviour,
To join their loving hands,
As Thou didst bind two natures
In Thine eternal bands;

5 Be present, Holy Spirit,
To bless them as they kneel,
As Thou for Christ, the Bridegroom,
The heavenly spouse dost seal:

mf 6 O spread Thy pure wing o'er them;
Let no ill power find place,
When onward to Thine altar
The hallowed path they trace,

The children of Thy grace
Prepare themselves to seek Thee
Within Thy chosen place.
Our song shall rise to greet Thee,
If Thou our hearts wilt raise ;

If Thou our lips wilt open,
Our mouth shall show Thy praise.

3 The shining choir of angels

5 Tell out, sweet bells, His praises !
Sing, children, sing His name !

His mighty deeds proclaim,

H. A. C. MALAN.

Praise our God, all ye His servants, and ye that fear Him, both small and great.

mf ABOVE the clear blue sky,
Beyond our feeble sight,
The God of glory dwells on high
In everlasting light.

2 Around His glorious throne
The holy angels stand ;

f In songs of praise their King they own,
Or fly at His command.

mf 3 And we may praise Him too,
And serve Him here below ;
He stoops to mark what children do,
Their inmost thoughts to know ;

4 And, though He reigns above,
Where angels ceaseless praise,
He will accept our humble love,
And lead us in His ways.

5 O may we humbly seek
To do His holy will,
And try, with thankful hearts and meek,
To sing His praises still ;

p 6 And then, for Jesus' sake,
Who came for us to die,
f Our happy spirits He will take
To praise Him in the sky. AMEN.

CHORUS.

Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass.

mf SEE! in yonder manger low,
Born for us on earth below,
See! the tender Lamb appears,
Promised from eternal years.

f Hail, thou ever-bless'd morn!
Hail, redemption's happy dawn!
Sing through all Jerusalem,
'Christ is born in Bethlehem.'

mf 2 Lo! within a manger lies
He Who built the starry skies;
He Who, throned in height sublime, mf 6
Sits amid the cherubim.

3 Say, ye holy shepherds, say,
What your joyful news to-day;

Wherefore have ye left your sheep
On the lonely mountain steep?

p 4 'As we watched at dead of night,
Lo! we saw a wondrous light;
Angels, singing peace on earth,
Told us of the Saviour's birth.'

5 Sacred Infant, all Divine,
What a tender love was Thine,
Thus to come from highest bliss
Down to such a world as this!

Teach, O teach us, Holy Child,
By Thy face so meek and mild,
Teach us to resemble Thee
In Thy sweet humility.

Thy love to me was wonderful.

- mf* IT is a thing most wonderful,
 Almost too wonderful to be,
 That God's own Son should come from

 And die to save a child like me.
- pp* 4 I sometimes think about the cross,
 And shut my eyes, and try to see
 The cruel nails, and crown of

 I could but see a little part
 Of that great love, which, like a fire,
 Is always burning in His heart.

 A child so weak and full of sin ;
 His love must be most wonderful,
 If He could die my love to win.
- 6 It is most wonderful to know
 His love for me so free and sure ;
 But 't is more wonderful to see
 My love for Him so faint and poor.
- c* 7 And yet I want to love Thee, Lord :
 O light the flame within my heart,
 And I will love Thee more and more,

The children were crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David.

mf HOSANNA, loud hosanna
The little children sang ;
Through pillared court and temple
The lovely anthem rang ;
To Jesus, Who had blessed them,
Close folded to His breast,
The children sang their praises,
The simplest and the best.

2 From Olivet they followed,
'Mid an exultant crowd,
The victor palm-branch waving,
And chanting clear and loud ;
Bright angels joined the chorus
Beyond the cloudless sky,—

f ' Hosanna in the highest !
Glory to God on high !'

mf 3 Fair leaves of silvery olive
They strewed upon the ground,
While Salem's circling mountains
Echoed the joyful sound ;

Should on His bidding wait.

mf 4 ' Hosanna in the highest !'
That ancient song we sing,
For Christ is our Redeemer,
The Lord of heaven our King.

Hushed was the Evening Hymn. 573

ARTHUR SULLIVAN.

By permission of Novello and Company, Limited.

Samuel answered, Speak; for Thy servant heareth.Unis. mp

HUSHED was the evening hymn,
The temple courts were dark,
The lamp was burning dim
Before the sacred ark,

c When suddenly a voice Divine
Rang through the silence of the shrine.

mp 2 The old man, meek and mild,
The priest of Israel, slept;
His watch the temple child,
The little Levite, kept;
And what from Eli's sense was sealed
The Lord to Hannah's son revealed.

Har. mf 3 O give me Samuel's ear,
The open ear, O Lord,
Alive and quick to hear

p Each whisper of Thy word,
c Like him to answer at Thy call,
And to obey Thee first of all.

mf 4 O give me Samuel's heart,
A lowly heart, that waits
Where in Thy house Thou art,
Or watches at Thy gates
By day and night, a heart that still Moves at the breathing of Thy will.

5 O give me Samuel's mind,
A sweet un murmuring faith,
Obedient and resigned
To Thee in life and death,—
That I may read, with childlike eyes,
Truths that are hidden from the wise. AMEN.

M. PALMER.

Verses 2, 3 and 4.

[May be sung to 'Springfield,' No. 207.]

Come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the Lord.

[FOR FLOWER SERVICES.]

mf HERE, Lord, we offer Thee all that is fairest, Bloom from the garden and flowers from the field,
p Gifts for the stricken ones, knowing Thou carest
 More for the love than the wealth that we yield.

mf 2 Send, Lord, by these to the sick and the dying,
 Speak to their hearts with a message of peace ;
 Comfort the sad who in weakness are lying,
p Grant the departing a gentle release.

mf 3  Raise, Lord, to health again those who have sickened ;
 Fair be their lives as the roses in bloom ;
 Give, of Thy grace, to the souls Thou hast quickened Gladness for sorrow and brightness for gloom.

mp 4 We, Lord, like flowers, must bloom and must wither ;
 We, like these blossoms, must fade and must die ;
mf Gather us, Lord, to Thy bosom for ever,
 Grant us a place in Thy home in the sky. AMEN.

[FOR AN ANNIVERSARY.]

mf	F ATHER, from Thy throne of glory, mf 3	Wilt Thou, O almighty Father,
	Listen to our praise, we pray ;	Bless our meeting here to-day,
p	Thou hast spared us, in Thy mercy,	Ere the night's dark shade shall gather
	Here to meet another day.	And our praises die away ?
f	Crown, crown it, God of love, f	Come, Lord, and bless us now ;
	With blessings from above ;	Thy grace and mercy show ;
	Fill our hearts, fill our hearts	Evermore, evermore
	With Thy fear and love.	May Thy blessings flow.
mf 2	Blessings more than we can number	mf 4 May we all, when life is over,
	Hitherto have marked our way ;	Teachers, scholars, meet above,
	And Thine eye, that knows no slumber, c	Joining in that song for ever
	Hath watched o'er us every day.	Of our risen Saviour's love.
f	Praise, praise unto Thy name, f	Then shall we sweetly sing
	Praise, praise we loud proclaim ;	Praise to our Saviour King ;
	Heaven shall ring, heaven shall ring	Heaven shall ring, heaven shall ring
	With the loud acclaim.	With the strain we sing.

Adapted from O. GIBBONS.

That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith.

mf COME, dearest Lord, descend and dwell
By faith and love in every breast;
Then shall we know, and taste, and feel
The joys that cannot be expressed.

2 Come, fill our hearts with inward strength,
Make our enlarged souls possess
And learn the height and breadth and length
Of Thine unmeasurable grace.

Alla Trinita Beata.

604

From Laudi Spirituali.

A musical score for a hymn titled 'Alla Trinita Beata'. The score is written in 4/2 time and consists of two staves: a treble staff and a bass staff. The music is in a key with one flat (B-flat). The score is divided into five systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The music features various note values, including quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, as well as rests. The piece concludes with the text 'A-men.' written above the final measure of the bass staff.

PSALM XXXI. 19—24.

- mf* HOW great 's the goodness Thou for them
That fear Thee keep'st in store,
And wrought'st for them that trust in
The sons of men before ! [Thee
- p* 4 ' For from Thine eyes cut off I am,'
I in my haste had said ;
c My voice yet heard'st Thou, when to

With cries my moan I made.
- 2 In secret of Thy presence Thou Shalt hide them from man's pride :
From strife of tongues Thou closely
As in a tent, them hide. [shalt,
- mf* 5 O love the Lord, all ye His saints ;
Because the Lord doth guard
The faithful, and He plenteously
Proud doers doth reward.
- f* 3 All praise and thanks be to the Lord ;
For He hath magnified
His wondrous love to me within
A city fortified.

PSALM XXXIII. 1—8.

- mf* YE righteous, in the Lord rejoice ;
It comely is and right
That upright men, with thankful voice,
Should praise the Lord of might.
- f* 2 Praise God with harp, and unto Him
Sing with the psaltery ;
Upon a ten-stringed instrument
Make ye sweet melody.
- 3 A new song to Him sing, and play
With loud noise skilfully ;
For right is God's word, all His works
Are done in verity.
- mf* 4 To judgment and to righteousness
A love He beareth still ;
The loving-kindness of the Lord
The earth throughout doth fill.
- 5 The heavens by the word of God
Did their beginning take ;
And by the breathing of His mouth
He all their hosts did make.
- 6 The waters of the seas He brings Together as an heap ;
And in storehouses, as it were,
He layeth up the deep.
- f* 7 Let earth, and all that live therein,
With reverence fear the Lord ;
Let all the world's inhabitants
Dread Him with one accord.

PSALM XXXIV. 1—15.

- mf* GOD will I bless all times; His praise
My mouth shall still express.
My soul shall boast in God: the meek
Shall hear with joyfulness.
- 2 Extol the Lord with me; let us
Exalt His name together.
I sought the Lord, He heard, and did Me from all fears deliver.
- 3 They looked to Him, and lightened mf 7 O children, hither do ye come,
Not shamed were their faces. [were:
This poor man cried, God heard, and Him from all his distresses. [saved
- f* 4 The angel of the Lord encamps,
And round encompasseth
All those about that do Him fear,
And them delivereth.
- 5 O taste and see that God is good:
Who trusts in Him is blessed.
Fear God His saints: none that Him
Shall be with want oppressed. [fear
- 6 The lions young may hungry be,
And they may lack their food;
But they that truly seek the Lord
Shall not lack any good.
- 8 What man is he that life desires,
To see good would live long?
Thy lips refrain from speaking guile,
And from ill words thy tongue.
- 9 Depart from ill, do good, seek peace,
Pursue it earnestly.
God's eyes are on the just; His ears
Are open to their cry. AMEN.

And from the miry clay,
And on a rock He set my feet,
Establishing my way.
- 3 He put a new song in my mouth,
Our God to magnify :
Many shall see it, and shall fear,
And on the Lord rely.
- f* 4 O blessed is the man whose trust
Upon the Lord relies, Respecting not the proud, nor such
As turn aside to lies.
- mf* 5 O Lord my God, full many are
The wonders Thou hast done ;
Thy gracious thoughts to us-ward far Above all thoughts are gone :
- 6 In order none can reckon them
To Thee : if them declare
And speak of them I would, they more
Than can be numbered are. AMEN.

PSALM XCVIII.

- mf* O SING a new song to the Lord,
For wonders He hath done :
His right hand and His holy arm
Him victory hath won.
- 2 The Lord God His salvation
Hath caused to be known ;
His justice in the heathen's sight
He openly hath shown.
- 3 He mindful of His grace and truth
To Israel's house hath been ;
And the salvation of our God
All ends of the earth have seen.

- f* 4 Let all the earth unto the Lord
Send forth a joyful noise ;
Lift up your voice aloud to Him,
Sing praises and rejoice.
- 5 With harp, with harp and voice of Unto Jehovah sing : [psalms,
With trumpets, cornets, gladly sound
Before the Lord the King.
- 6 Let seas and all their fulness roar,
The world, and dwellers there ;
Let floods clap hands, and let the hills
Together joy declare

- 7 Before the Lord, because He comes,
To judge the earth comes He :
He'll judge the world with righteousness,
His folk with equity.

PSALM C.

f ALL people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
Him serve with mirth, His praise forth tell;
Come ye before Him and rejoice.

mf 2 Know that the Lord is God indeed:
Without our aid He did us make;
We are His folk, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take.

Unis. f 3 O enter then His gates with praise;
Approach with joy His courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless His name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

PSALM CIII. 8—17.

mf THE Lord our God is merciful,
And He is gracious,
Long-suffering, and slow to wrath,
In mercy plenteous.

p 2 He will not chide continually,
Nor keep His anger still ;
With us He dealt not as we sinned,

PSALM CVII. 1—9.

mf PRAISE God, for He is good : for still
 His mercies lasting be.
 Let God's redeemed say so, whom He
 From the enemy's hand did free ;
 2 And gathered them out of the lands,
 From north, south, east, and west.
mp They strayed in desert's pathless way,
 No city found to rest.
 3 For thirst and hunger in them faints
 Their soul. When straits them press, c They cry unto the Lord, and He
 Them frees from their distress.

mf 4 Them also in a way to walk
 That right is He did guide,
 That they might to a city go Wherein they might abide.
f 5 O that men to the Lord would give Praise for His goodness then,
 And for His works of wonder done
 Unto the sons of men !
 6 For He the soul that longing is Doth fully satisfy ;
 With goodness He the hungry soul
 Doth fill abundantly. AMEN.

PSALM CX.

mf THE Lord did say unto my Lord,
 'Sit Thou at My right hand,
 Until I make Thy foes a stool
 Whereon Thy feet may stand.'
 2 The Lord shall out of Sion send
 The rod of Thy great power :
 In midst of all Thine enemies
 Be Thou the Governor.
 3 A willing people in Thy day
 Of power shall come to Thee ;
 In holy beauties, from morn's womb,
 Thy youth like dew shall be.
f 4 The Lord Himself hath made an oath, c

'Of the order of Melchisedec
 Thou art a Priest for ever.'
 5 The glorious and mighty Lord,
 That sits at Thy right hand,
 Shall, in His day of wrath, strike through Kings that do Him withstand.
 6 He shall among the heathen judge ;
 He shall with bodies dead
 The places fill : o'er many lands
 He wound shall every head.
mf 7 The brook that runneth in the way
 With drink shall Him supply ;

PSALM CXL.

mf PRAISE ye the Lord: with my whole
I will God's praise declare, [heart
Where the assemblies of the just
And congregations are.

2 The whole works of the Lord our God
Are great above all measure;
Sought out they are of every one
That doth therein take pleasure.

3 His work most honourable is,
Most glorious and pure,
And His untainted righteousness
For ever doth endure.

mp 4 His works most wonderful He hath
Made to be thought upon;
The Lord is gracious, and He is Full of compassion.

5 He giveth meat unto all those
That truly do Him fear;

And evermore His covenant
He in His mind will bear.

f 6 He did the power of His works
Unto His people show,
When He the heathen's heritage
Upon them did bestow.

7 His handyworks are truth and right;
All His commands are sure;
And, done in truth and uprightness,
They evermore endure.

8 He sent redemption to His folk;
His covenant for aye
He did command: holy His name
And reverend is alway.

Have all that His commands fulfil.
His praise endures for aye. AMEN.

PSALM CXXIV.

mf NOW Israël mp May say, and that truly :—
If that the Lord
Had not our cause maintained,
If that the Lord
Had not our right sustained,
When cruel men
Against us furiously
Rose up in wrath,
To make of us their prey,

p 2 Then certainly
They had devoured us all,
And swallowed quick,
For ought that we could deem ;
c Such was their rage,
As we might well esteem ;
mf And, as fierce floods
Before them all things drown, d So had they brought
Our soul to death quite down.

mf 3 The raging streams,
With their proud swelling waves,
Had then our soul
O'erwhelmèd in the deep.
c But blessed be God,
Who doth us safely keep,
f And hath not given Us for a living prey
Unto their teeth
And bloody cruelty.

mf 4 Even as a bird
Out of the fowler's snare

The Ten Commandments, with Responses.*

God spake all these words, saying,—I am the Lord thy God, Which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

I.

Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

II.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me; and shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me, and keep My commandments.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

III.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

IV.

Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

V.

Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not kill.

VI.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VII.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not steal.

VIII.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

IX.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these Thy laws in our hearts, we beseech Thee.

The New Testament Commandments, with Responses.

I.

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

II.

Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

III.

Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father Which is in heaven is perfect.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these Thy laws in our hearts, we beseech Thee.

The first system of musical notation is in 6/4 time, featuring a treble and bass staff. The melody is marked with a piano (p) dynamic. The lyrics are: "The Lord bless thee,* and keep thee: The".

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Lord make His face to shine up-on thee, and be gra-cious un-to". The dynamic changes to pp (pianissimo) for the final measure.

The third system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are: "thee: . . . The Lord lift up His coun-ten-ance up-on thee, and". The dynamic changes to p (piano) for the first measure and pp (pianissimo) for the final measure.

The fourth system concludes the piece. The lyrics are: "give thee peace, . . . and give thee peace. . .". The dynamic is marked ppp (pianississimo) for the first measure and ppp for the final measure.
